

Metropolitan Institute of Design

The Metropolitan Institute of Design Presents:

Introduction to Sustainable LEED Building

A Seminar for Real Estate, Building and Interior Design Professionals

7.5 Continuing Education Units (CEU) Credits- 7.5 hours

What is LEED?

Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design

LEED is one of the most popular green building certification programs used worldwide.

When: Tuesday, June 18th 2019

From: 9:00am-5:30pm

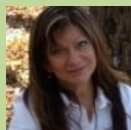

Where: Metropolitan Institute of Design

200 Oak Drive Syosset, NY 11791

Fee: $199.00

Includes Study Guide Booklet

Jean Cipriano, ASID, LEED AP is an Interior Designer and a faculty member at Metropolitan Institute of Design

Why is LEED Necessary?

LEED for Building Design and Construction provides a framework for creating healthy interiors by limiting exposure to harmful chemicals and materials, therefore reducing the potential for illness and supporting the wellbeing of all inhabitants.

Whether involved in single family homes, health care offices, or the Freedom Tower, LEED is changing the way we think about how we live and work. This seminar will give you the knowledge you need.

Reserve your Seat Now!

Call: (516) 845-4033

Email: Rachal@met-design.com

This seminar can act as preparation for the LEED Green Associate Exam!